The “Little Rock Nine” are escorted inside Little Rock Central High School on September 25, 1957.

Keynote Speaker
Dr. Terrance Roberts

Following a racial incident in an Arkansas hamburger joint in the early 1950s, 13 year-old Terrance Roberts found the resolve that eventually helped him become one of the nine courageous African American students who desegregated Little Rock Central High School. This group of African-American young people integrated the school under the protection of 1,000 members of the 101st Airborne Division of the US Army.

Please join us for an evening with Terrance Roberts in Parkway.
